"TELSTAR" The Concert Tour

STARRING 3 60s ORIGINAL JOE MEEK ARTISTES

Joe Meek is acknowledged as Britain's first and most innovative independent record producer. From his small recording studio in Holloway Road, London he changed the face of the British music industry. His most famous hit the Tornados' "TELSTAR" was a worldwide smash and the first ever UK group to reach No.1 in the USA. Major artistes who made their recording debuts at Joe's studio include Tom Jones, David Bowie and Status Quo. Apart from "TELSTAR" Joe had global hits and UK No.1 chart success with "Johnny Remember Me" and "Have I The Right"

All featured in:

The Movie "TELSTAR"

Based on Nick Moran's West End play "TELSTAR" this major film release has its worldwide premiere at the Odeon Leicester Square on Saturday 25 October. Starring Con O'Neill as Joe Meek, Pam Ferris as Mrs Violet Shenton and Kevin Spacey as Major Banks, the movie tells the story of Joe's tragic life. A real "Triumph" to "Tragedy" story. Featuring in cameo roles Clem Cattini (The Tornados) and John Leyton. The movie's soundtrack also features Joe's major hits including "Telstar", "Johnny Remember Me" and "Have I The Right" – plus a special recording by Duffy
